

Summer Reading for Honors Literature/World History 10 Ansbach High School

This list is comprised of the required books for the Honors 10 Class. In addition, there are many short stories from The Language of Literature and original historical documents that are read in this class. The world history textbook, World History: Connections to Today, is also read extensively.

Two additional Accelerated Reader books (student's choice) may be assigned for extra credit; these books can be chosen as fiction or non-fiction, from the Renaissance period to the present era.

- ✓ The Prince, by Niccolo Machiavelli
- ✓ The Taming of the Shrew, by William Shakespeare
- ✓ A Midwife's Tale: The Life of Martha Ballard, edited by Laurel T. Ulrich
- ✓ Tartuffe, by Jean Moliere
- ✓ Two Treatises on Government, by John Locke
- ✓ The Social Contract, by Jean-Jacques Rousseau
- ✓ Candide, by Francois Voltaire
- ✓ A Tale of Two Cities, by Charles Dickens
- ✓ Great Expectations, by Charles Dickens
- ✓ A Doll's House, by Henrik Ibsen
- ✓ Things Fall Apart, by Chinua Achebe
- ✓ All Quiet on the Western Front, by Erick Remarque
- ✓ Night, by Elie Wiesel
- ✓ Farewell to Manzanar, by Jeanne Watasuki
- ✓ Hiroshima, by John Hersey
- ✓ Red Scarf Girl: A Memoir of the Cultural Revolution, by Ji Li Jiang

Also recommended are plays by Shakespeare, especially Julius Caesar, The Tempest, Twelfth Night, and A Midsummer Night's Dream.